

Discussion Leader's Notes

March 2008

TIPS FOR LEADING THIS MONTH'S DISCUSSION

- ◆ Encourage members to discuss Farm Bureau policy issues. Specifically, think about new ideas that would be beneficial to agriculture and the rural community.
- ◆ Consider updating existing policies that have become outdated and eliminating policies that are no longer relevant.
- ◆ Encourage suggestions that are concise and provide a clear position. Try to avoid making general statements that lack a direct action.
- ◆ Encourage suggestions that relate to county, state and federal policy.

CONNECTIONS

Public Policy

2008 Trends & Issues Conference (see brochure insert), Earth Day & Arbor Day

Communications

New Ohio Farm & Country episode

Organization

Learn about the new county Organization Action Teams

HONEYBAKED HAM WINNER

Twin J's Advisory Council
Montgomery County

FUN SHEET

SUBMITTED BY: ST. ALBAN'S '76 CLUB
LICKING COUNTY

States Trivia

Clue:

1. Which state might be the smartest?
  2. Which state might be the dumbest?
  3. Which state might be the most observant?
  4. Which state might be the friendliest?
  5. Which state might be the cleanest?
  6. Which state might be the most pleasing to the IRS?
  7. Which state might be the tallest?
  8. Which state might be a chicken state?
  9. Which state might be a dessert?
  10. Which state might be a ruminant?
  11. Which state might be the happiest?
  12. Which state might be an unhealthy state?
  13. Which state might be a new country?
  14. Which state might love company?
  15. Which state might be a writing state?
1. Alabama (it has 4 "A"s)
  2. Tennessee (it has 4 "E"s)
  3. Mississippi (it has 4 "eyes")
  4. Ohio (it always says Hi!)
  5. Washington (always "washing")
  6. Texas (its letters spell taxes!)
  7. Utah (You tall!)
  8. Rhode Island (Rhode Island Red)
  9. (Baked) Alaska
  10. (New) Jersey
  11. Maryland (Merry land)
  12. Illinois (ILL)
  13. New Mexico
  14. Missouri (misery loves it)
  15. Pennsylvania ("Pencilvania")