

OFBF Optional Tours!

- Saturday, Jan 14, 2012—8:15am—
Whale Watching Tour.
- Join the Pacific Whale Foundation on a state-of-the-art, eco-friendly catamaran for a thrilling two-hour cruise with a whale expert. Every winter, pods of humpback whales migrate from the chilly Alaskan waters to Maui's balmy shallows, a swim of over 3000 miles. Anywhere from 1500 to 3000 whales appear in the Hawaiian waters every year. Watch the whales breach, spy-hop, fluke, play, and spout right in front of your eyes! The cost per person is: $28.25
- Sunday, Jan 15, 2012—9:00am—
Atlantis Submarine Experience.
- Add deeper meaning to your island visit by diving to depths well over 100 feet in the safety and comfort of an air-conditioned, Coast Guard approved, real submarine. The Atlantis dive site is frequented by stingrays, yellow tangs, parrotfish, Bluefin Trevallies, eels, and many other species of under water life! The cost per person is $ 95.50
- Each of these tours have limited seating available.

Hawaii Extension, Jan 11-16, 2012

OFBF is offering to its members the opportunity to extend their stay in Hawaii—traveling to both the Big Island of Hawaii and Maui. Each island has its own culture and unique adventures making each its own destination.

The national conference meeting will finish on January 11, 2012. You will leave Honolulu for the Big Island of Hawaii where you will enjoy the island splendor at the Hilton Waikoloa for two nights. The first night you are free to experience the island as you please! The following morning, the group will take a tour of the island including a stop at the volcano National Park.

The group will then journey to the island of Maui where you will enjoy a 3 night stay at the Hyatt Regency Maui Resort. This evening, everyone will join together for the Drums of the Pacific Luau right here at our hotel. You will have the option to go on a Whale Watching Tour or dive to over 100 feet in the ocean to view the many species of underwater life! Our hotel is also host to the “Dolphin Quest” program that allows you to come face-to-face and fingers-to-flippers with these amazing animals. The last night you will enjoy a sunset dinner cruise—chartered just for OFBF tour members!

Big Island of Hawaii

Hawaii's Big Island isn't just big, it's still growing. The Island of Hawaii is the youngest island in the Hawaiian chain and is also by far the biggest, providing a vast canvas of environments to discover a variety of unrivaled natural wonders. This is the home of one of the world's most active volcanoes (Kilauea), the tallest sea mountain in the world at more than 33,000 feet (Mauna Kea), the most massive mountain in the world (Maunaloa) and the largest park in the state (Hawaii Volcanoes National Park). All but two of the world's climate zones generate everything from lush rain forests to volcanic deserts, snow-capped mountaintops to beautiful black sand beaches. Whether you're looking for a romantic getaway or a journey off the beaten path, you'll discover it all on Hawaii's Island of Adventure.

Island of Maui

From its heavenly beaches to its scenic natural wonders, there are plenty of reasons why Maui has been voted “Best Island” by readers of Conde Nast Traveler for more than a dozen years.

Discover your own reasons to love Maui as you stroll the seaside streets of Lahaina and the lovely beaches of Kaanapali. Feel the mana (power) of Haleakala National Park or discover the arts and culture of Kahului and Upcountry Maui. From championship golf courses to the scenic road to Hana, your vacation on the “Valley Isle” promises to be unforgettable. It's no wonder why thousands of humpback whales migrate to Maui's warm waters year after year. One visit to Maui and you just might join them.
