

In 2012 a group of like-minded people got together and organized a horse march in downtown Cleveland, featuring the Cleveland Mounted Police Unit, to bring attention to these beautiful horses that patrol our city streets. The Cleveland Mounted Unit has been in existence since the early 1900's and is one of the few "big city" police horse patrols still at work. It takes a lot of effort by very dedicated people and a lot of money to keep these horses fed and sheltered. The horse march was organized again this year to continue to raise awareness and funds to keep the unit going while the officers and horses provide a safe environment on our city streets and in our neighborhoods.

Thanks to the September 14, 2013 horse march sponsors: The Friends of Cleveland Mounted Police, Cuyahoga Farm Bureau, The Horsemen's Corral and Mary Vedda -Keller Williams Realty. And to the horse march committee that organized the event: Kathy King, Jen Scolaro, Anita Cook, Tom Heinz, Mark Medwid, Bobbie & Joe Coalter, Mary Vedda, , Lisa Krieger, Del Stanbeck, Joe Benek, Paul Stark & Brian Stark.
