

Sauder Village®

Agricultural Lecture Series

All programs are free and open to the public thanks to the support of the Ohio Humanities Council.

Programs held at 7:30 p.m. at Sauder Heritage Inn on the dates listed below.

Monday, May 19 - The Andersons Story

Richard P. Anderson,

The Andersons of Maumee, OH

Richard is the chairman of The Andersons, Inc. and has been with the company since his father, Harold, founded it in 1947. The Andersons Inc. is a respected leader and dominant regional player in the grain industry.

Monday, June 9 - "The Dawn of the Golden Age of Agriculture"

Early twentieth century farming in the heartland, Todd Price,

Historic Wagner Farms, Glenview, IL Todd is the Founding Director of Historic Wagner Farm, The Glenview Park District, Glenview, Illinois. He will speak on the social, technological, political and economic changes of the 1920s and how these impacted farming.

Monday, October 6 - "The Vacant Chair on the Farm: Understanding Marriage, Farm Management, & Soldiering in the Midwest during the American Civil War",

Joe Anderson - Mount Royal University of Alberta Canada

Dr. Anderson is an author and professor of humanities at Mount Royal University, Calgary, Alberta, Canada. His lecture will focus in on the important role of farm wives during the Civil War era and how this led to changes in both farming and society.

