SUMMER REACH OUT EVENT SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 2014

Ohio Farm Bureau's Young Agricultural Professionals is hosting a Farm Tour Summer Reach Out. This family event will start at Mohican State Park and you will have the option to go on one of three tours, which includes lunch. Please check the specific information of each tour on the inside of this brochure. Two of the tours will bus you to different locations around central Ohio where you can get a behind-the-scenes view of a variety of farms and agricultural businesses. The third tour is a family friendly tour to Malabar Farm and an afternoon of games at Mohican State Park. We invite you to bring your family to enjoy a weekend away with other young ag professionals at Mohican State Park.

COST: $20 PER ADULT, $5 PER CHILD (UP TO AGE 18)

TOUR #1

MALABAR FARM

Malabar Farm was built in 1939 by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Louis Bromfield and was his home until his death in 1956. Bromfield wanted Malabar Farm to become a national model for sustainable agriculture. In 1976, the farm became a state park. The group will enjoy a guided wagon tour of the farmland of Malabar Farm, as well as a tour of "The Big House" that Bromfield built in the 1940s.

RUS-MEN FARMS

Rus-Men Farms is a sixth-generation family farm that takes what they do seriously. They provide high-quality beef, pork, chicken, eggs and Thanksgiving turkeys to their customers using no hormones or antibiotics. Join us on a tour of Rus-Men to see how they operate their meat farm to meet the demands of their consumers.

PLEIADES MAPLE FARM

The Pleiades Maple Farm has a tradition of making high quality maple syrup that has endured more than 80 years. With extremely high standards in maple syrup production, see how they are able to consistently provide a maple syrup with superior taste and color.

TOUR #2

OARDC-WOOSTER

OHIO AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Visit Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster to gain a behind-the-scenes perspective of the research being done to improve Ohio's agriculture. This tour will also visit with Quasar Energy Group to learn about recycling energy from organic waste.

BRISTOL DAIRY

John and Louis Douglass started in 1988 farming with John's father on the Catalpadale Dairy. They began with 150 cows, and today milk 1,500 cows in a double-24 parlor, three times a day. In 2010, they purchased Bristol Dairy, where they currently milk 2,600 cows. They also own a third farm in Kentucky, milking an additional 1,700 head. The Douglasses farm with their three children and have a team of 85 employees to keep the three farms running smoothly. This tour stop will allow you to see the Bristol Dairy Farm and milking parlor, as well as have a chance to visit with the Douglass family.

TROUTMAN VINEYARDS

The tour ends with a stop at Troutman Vineyards, where they have been producing high-quality locally produced wine since 1998. Spend some time with vineyard owner Andy Troutman to learn what it takes to start with a few vines and grow to selling more than 15 types of wine.
