
A Taste of Crawford County

A unique dining and agricultural engagement experience exploring food and farming in North Central Ohio

When: September 4, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Where: Crawford County Youth Building on the Fairgrounds

What: A three-course meal prepared by Susan Vander Maas of Doc's Deli in Mansfield. Susan is a Galion native who now manages Doc's. She uses local ingredients to create culinary masterpieces. Guests will learn tips and tricks from Susan while also gaining valuable knowledge about food preparation and ingredient selection.

Guests will also network with area farmers and engage in discussion about the role agriculture plays in today's society and about modern food production.

Please join us for a night of food, networking, and conversation at this year's A Taste of Crawford County. This event, sponsored by the Crawford County Farm Bureau, Cattlemen's Association, local pork and dairy producers, and the Bucyrus and Galion-Crestline Area Chambers of Commerce, will offer a unique opportunity for the community to gather with farmers, eat delicious, locally produced food, and talk about the role of local farmers in a variety of economies.

Forging a partnership between farmers and consumers.

Tickets are $10 for Farm Bureau members and $15 for non-members.

Available at area Chambers of Commerce or by calling 800-327-6055. Please purchase tickets by September 1.

A portion of proceeds will be invested in nutrition education programs for area families.

Attire for the evening is business casual.
