

NORTHWEST OHIO AG-BUSINESS BREAKFAST FORUM

Ohio Farm Bureau leader to speak at breakfast forum

Thursday, May 18, 2017 | 8 – 9:30 a.m.

Providing an update on the 2018 Farm Bill, priority issues for the year, partnerships among farmers and consumers, along with other relevant issues to agriculture, Ohio Farm Bureau Federation executive vice president Adam Sharp will speak at the Northwest Ohio Ag-Business Breakfast Forum, Thursday, May 18, 2017 from 8 – 9:30 a.m.

Sharp has held several key positions at Ohio Farm Bureau since 2004, and was named the chief executive of the statewide organization in July 2016.

Prior to joining Ohio Farm Bureau, he held various policy and government relations roles with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the American Farm Bureau Federation. He also served as a teaching assistant for The Ohio State University College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences, and as a radio producer for Agri-Broadcasting Network. Sharp grew up working on his family's farm in southern Ohio, which he now owns and operates with his brothers.

What is the Northwest Ohio Ag-Business Breakfast Forum?

The Forum, held every third Thursday, is an opportunity to gain information on current issues, trends and programs in the agricultural community and those who support the agricultural economy.

Arrive early, as breakfast and informal networking will start at 8 a.m., with the program to follow at 8:30 a.m. The cost is just $10 per person when you RSVP in advance, or $12 per person at the door (cash or check; make check payable to AIF) which includes breakfast and networking opportunities. Guests are encouraged to reserve a seat in advance.

Location

Agricultural Incubator Foundation; 13737 Middleton Pike; Bowling Green, Ohio 43402.
