

HOW SHOULD I PREPARE FOR CAMP?

With your parents or guardian, complete both the Student Code of Conduct and the Student Health & Registration form (<http://ohioffa.org/camp/summer-camp/student-info-summer-camp/>). Don't forget to complete both pages of the Health Form.

On the day you depart for Camp, make sure you have all medication (in its original container) that is listed on the form with you in a Ziploc bag with your name on it. Turn that in to your Advisor before you arrive at Camp.

WHAT SHOULD I PACK?

Shoes and Clothes: Campers are required to wear shoes at camp at all times. Proper dress is required in the dining hall. Campers are asked to wear clothing that is conservative and will not draw attention such as short shorts and leggings as pants. Campers are asked to avoid wearing clothing with drug, alcohol, or tobacco references. Clothing that is inappropriate for a school setting is also inappropriate at Camp.

You should also bring these things: a sleeping bag or two sheets (bunk size), pillow and pillow case, towels, soap and other toiletries, fishing tackle, musical instruments for the talent show, clothing suitable for camping including one pair of long pants, light jacket, two pairs of shoes, one of which should be closed toes, camera, spending money for the Canteen (items from $0.50-$40, T-Shirts $15, Hoodies $25), Ranges, and Paintball (if you want to play), and a good appetite!

Cost: $145
RSVP deadline: May 25

AGENDA:

Ohio Leadership Camp Sample Schedule

***Schedule will be updated with 2018 Specific programming

Ohio Farm Bureau is teaming with Ohio FFA to offer Farm Bureau youth a great leadership experience. We encourage you to check out Ohio's Leadership Conference (OLC) held at Camp Muskingum. FFA Camp Muskingum is located in Carroll County, on the banks of Leesville Lake.

Join Ohio's finest youth for OLC 2018! OLC is open to all FFA and Farm Bureau Youth Members. OLC specialized and advanced programming will be delivered by the National FFA as an Advanced Leadership Development (ALD) Conference-360 Influence Conference! The conference focuses on the development of the individual student. Students will be challenged to push the limits in their leadership. Students will focus on:

- Influencers
- Trustworthy
- Collaborating
- Relationship Building
- Deliberate
- Agents of Change

Cost: Student – $145 Advisor – $72.50

How to register: Must be a high school student to apply.

FFA Students should register via their FFA Advisors. Farm Bureau members who are not enrolled in FFA can register for the camp by completing and returning return the Code of Conduct and Student Health and Registration forms and $145 payment to your county Farm Bureau or the Ohio Farm Bureau

(Atten: Melinda Witten 280 North High Street, Floor 6, Columbus, OH 43215) NO LATER THAN May 25.

PLEASE REMEMBER THE FOLLOWING:

- Each student and parent/guardian must sign the student code of conduct
- Each student must complete both pages of the student health and registration form and have it signed by their parent/ guardian/
- Fax, mail or drop off the registration materials, which include the student health and registration, and code of conduct forms to your local county Farm Bureau office by May 25.

The total camp fee includes camp insurance, meals, and the use of camp facilities and equipment. The insurance gives you protection from the time you leave home until you return.

Each camper is protected up to $2,500 each incident (dental only $300) and $500 each sickness. Proper forms must be processed to claim insurance benefits.
