

Farm Bill Implications for Dairy Farmers

Tuesday, February 5, 2019

10 a.m.

LCCC Wellington Center

151 Commerce Drive, Wellington, Ohio 44090

This meeting will include a viewing and discussion of the webinar by Marin Bozic, assistant professor in applied economics at the University of Minnesota, discussing changes dairy producers should be aware of in the new farm bill.

The program highlights and discusses the economic implications of five points:

1. The discontinuation of the Margin Protection program for dairy producers.
2. The introduction of a Dairy Margin Coverage program.
3. Low premiums and coverage levels up to $9.50, as well as discounts for consistent use.
4. Partial rebate of net MPP premiums paid for 2015-2018 period.
5. Removing restrictions on combining crop insurance and Title I programs (LGM and DMC).
