Board Nominees 2020

Jennifer Bullock

has been a lifelong resident of Warren County, and currently resides in Lebanon with her husband David and daughter Dana. The Bullocks have been raising beef cattle in the county for many years, with a primary focus on black Angus feeder calves. They also grow several crops including corn, soybeans, and hay. Jennifer is a retired schoolteacher and continues her passion for education as a 4-H advisor and mentor in Warren County. She has also taught preschool classes at the Countryside YMCA for over 18 years. She has been involved with various events and activities with the Warren County Farm Bureau such as Ag Days, Fair T-shirts, and the milk booth.

Patrick Edinger

is the owner and operator of Edinger Farms LLC. Upon graduation from Morehead State University, Patrick and his wife, Chase, manage a diverse farm that produces and markets a wide range of row crops, forage, and livestock products. Patrick has served as a Warren County Farm Bureau Board member for several years, where he enjoys working with others who are dedicated to helping and supporting local farmers.

Board Nominees 2019

Melanie Heitzman

has resided in the South East corner of Warren County with husband Andy and two children Audrey and Logan for 25 years. She likes doing gardening and having animals to make life more interesting! She hails from Auglaize County where she grew up on the family grain and Polled Hereford farm. She is a 4-H alum and currently volunteers as an advisor for the Country Roots 4-H Club. Melanie works part time as office assistant for the Warren County Ag Society. If you have noticed the flower containers on the fairgrounds, she designed, planted and helps maintain them. Serving on committees is important and she serves on the Warren County Jr. Fair Sale Committee as Secretary and has served with Blanchester Music and Athletic Boosters amongst numerous other opportunities. Agricultural industry is near and dear to her heart and would like the opportunity to commit her time to the WC Farm Bureau and further its mission statement to the betterment of our communities.

Butch Schappacher

has been a past Warren County Farm Bureau President and has served on the board of trustees a couple of times through out his life. He has been an active member of the Farm Bureau for 42 years. He resides in Lebanon, Ohio where he farms a variety of crops as well as pumpkins, hay, and straw. He has two children with his wife Sherry who have also pursued careers in agriculture. He has also had the pleasure of serving on the 4-H Camp Graham board for almost 20 years. He is a proud 4-H advisor of the Odyssey 4-H club.
