

Woodland

Wednesdays

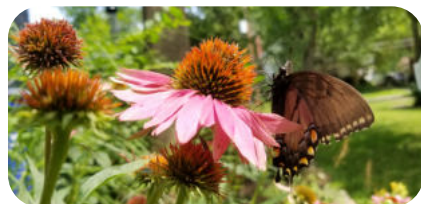

Rough Around
the Edges:
Creating Habitat on Your Land

Join us in person to learn about the importance of pollinator habitat and how your woodland management may be a key tool to helping wildlife.

Three speakers will highlight programs that can provide technical and financial assistance to landowners interested in making habitat improvements.

Resource materials will be provided.

Featured speakers:

Ryan Jackson,
Private Lands Biologist
ODNR Division of Wildlife

Abby Prieur
Farm Bill Wildlife Biologist
Pheasants Forever

Kara MacDowell
District Conservationist
USDA-NRCS
